Michael Bond is admitted to practice in New York and New Jersey, as well as the U.S. District Court for the District of New Jersey. He prides himself on offering his clients down-to-earth, friendly, and highly personalized legal representation—a “small-town lawyer” in the Big City.

Mike is a member of several bar associations, and serves on the New York State Bar Association’s Estates & Trusts committee. He also serves on the Solo and Small Firms committee of the LGBT Bar Association of Greater New York (LeGaL), and has likewise served as a panelist/faculty member at continuing legal education (CLE) programs and continuing education programs for real estate professionals.

Mike is a member of the American Cancer Society’s Planned Giving Council, as well as the Estate Planning Council of New York City. In addition, he volunteers his time to provide free estate planning and other pro bono legal services to low income New Yorkers.

Mike graduated cum laude from Seton Hall University School of Law, where he was awarded the Raymond Del Tufo, Jr. Constitutional Law Award and the Charles H. Revson Law Student Public Interest Fellowship.

Prior to embarking on a career in law, Mike worked for several years in the publishing world and for a number of nonprofit organizations.
